

Private Hire Meeting Space

Meeting space with character and appeal

The Garrison Hotel has four rooms available for hire, all unique in character and appearance, whether you have a military past, interest or simply like the idea of booking a venue that offers more, the Garrison can accommodate your meeting needs.

The Cell

Although an addition to the original building, the room has been kept in character with the external wall of the original building running the length of the room. The Cell has natural light through double doors at one end of the room with direct access onto the courtyard. The Cell can accommodate up to 20 boardroom and 40 theatre style

The Armoury

The original ammunition store of the barracks, the armoury meeting room has been restored to what we see today, with its arched ceiling it is a room with a difference. Direct access from the courtyard, the room can house 16 boardrooms or 30 Theatre style

Garrison Suite

Situated on the 1st floor, the Garrison has its original cells, ideal for smaller meetings that require breakout facilities. The cells date back from when the building was a former Guardhouse, it is a unique room with lots of character. The Garrison has the additional bonus of an outdoor terrace area, suitable for all weathers as the roof can be pulled back for those nice summer days or covered over for the cooler months.

The Guardhouse

This room can hold up to 120 guest's theatre style although the room is versatile and can accommodate smaller parties by sectioning the room off, it's the ideal room if you are looking for somewhere with charm. Class room style is also an option for this room
